Gathering of Bourbons at Lincoln to Name a Candidate.

To-day the Democratic congressional convention of the Fourteenth Illinois district convened at Lincoln, to shuffle the cards and name a candidate who will be knocked out 2000 to 3000 votes by Capt. J. H. Rowell, the Republican nominee, whom the Democrats hate worse than thin Bourbon juice because the Captain has put the fair election bill through the House. Who the nominee will be even the delegates will not be able to say until they confer together and hear from the two candidates who appear to be anxious to secure the empty honor. Neither of the gentlemen reside in Macon, Logan, DeWitt or Piatt counties. They make their home in McLean county. Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson, who was once defeated by nearly 3000 votes by Rowell, will be nominated if he will telegraph from Oconomowoc, Wis., that he will make the race. The gentleman has said he could not make the canvass because of the bad health of his son, but as the boy is improving, it is probable that Mr. Stevenson will consent to run. Owen Scott, of the Bloomington Bulletin, will be nominated if Stevenson refuses to submit his name to the convention.

The delegates from Decatur and Macon county are I. D. Walker, P. W. Delaney, David Patterson, D. T. Burns, H. C. Mowry, J. W. Bigger, W. P. Davidson, B. F. Shipley, George Spittler, J. M. Gray, H. O. Montgomery, W. B. Smith and B. K. Duffee.

Too Particular.

Get Out.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sullivan, arrested at the instance of William Blake on a charge of living in adultery, furnished documentary evidence yesterday that they were legally married at Springfield Dec. 20, 1889, and the case against them was promptly dismissed. The couple were discharged from custody. Now Mr. Blake is in a position not to be envied.

Race Week Comedy-Drama.

The Grand will be opened on Monday next by the Indian actress, Ogarta, who will remain the entire week, playing at popular prices. She opens Monday evening in a dramatization of the well-known English novel, "Lizzie Leigh." The piece is a pretty description of Lancashire life, founded on fact. The company carry their own special scenery and mechanical effects for this play. Ogarta and her company will remain at the Grand the entire week, each night putting on a different play. Their prices are ten, twenty and thirty cents.

Death of Mrs. Hillary Beall.

Mrs. Jane Beall, widow of Hillary Beall, died at Warrensburg this (Thursday) morning at 7:30 o'clock, in the 83rd year of her age. The deceased had made her home with her daughter, Mrs. David Schroll, at whose residence she died. Some weeks ago the deceased by a fall fractured two of her ribs and since that misfortune occurred she has been in a very low state of health.

The deceased was the mother of nine children, eight of whom are living and one, Sarah Beall, being dead. Those who survive her are Mrs. Nancy Barrett, of Kansas; Mrs. Mary Schroll, of Warrensburg; Mrs. Lizzie Wydyck, of Nebraska; Parker and William Beall, of Warrensburg; Hillary Beall, of Niantic; John and Frank Beall, of Decatur.

The funeral will take place from the Schroll residence at 3:30 o'clock Friday evening.

The County Barbecue.

The chief officers of the Macon County Mutual Benefit Association are: John Longstreet, president; J. W. Thornhill, vice president; W. P. Davidson, secretary; John Van Gundy, treasurer.

The county association barbecue picnic will be held in September at a time to be fixed by the general committee. It will take place either at the fair ground park, at the Trotting Association park, or in the vicinity of Boiling Springs. The committee appointed is as follows: Chairman, H. O. Montgomery; Macon, W. H. Hinkle; Forsyth, J. B. Parker; Macon, W. S. Smith; Mt. Zion, Robert Hill; Booby, H. O. Allen; Harrisburg, W. P. Thornhill; Harrisburg, H. C. Griffin; Argenta, H. Manacke, Oakley.

HOME FROM NEW YORK.

Splendid Attractions for the Coming Dramatic Season.

Manager and Mrs. F. W. Haines arrived home last evening from New York and Philadelphia, after an absence of nearly three weeks. It was a business and pleasure trip, the Manager spending much of the time in Gotham, booking attractions for the Grand. He secured the cream companies for Decatur and had no difficulty in getting the companies, for the reason that Decatur has the best theatre in the West. The Manager did not hear of the fire at the Grand until he reached Terre Haute yesterday afternoon.

THE ATTRACTIONS.

Speaking of the opening of the season and the bookings Manager Haines says: "The regular season will open September 1st with the great tragedian, Thos. W. Keene. A large list of first-class attractions have been secured, including Patti Ross; The Private Secretary; Hoyt's new comedy, A Trip Through Chinatown; Bluebeard, Jr.; Julia Marlowe; The Great Metropolis; McLean and Prescott; Joe Emmett; Tautoum; Rose Coghlan; the Lyceum Theatre encores, The Wife; The Charity Ball, and E. H. Sothorn; Nellie McHenry; Dixey in Adonis; Bennett & Moulton opera company; Jefferson and Florence; The Hensler; Natural Gas; Louis Aldrich in The Editor; Bartholomew's Equine Paradox; Shenandoah; Evans & Hoey; Lewis Morrison in Fanst; Edna Ellis in The Governess; Stuart Robson in The Henrietta; Fay Templeton's big Operatic Comique company; Louis James; A Dark Secret; Maggie Mitchell; Corinne Burlesque company and others."

Decatur Youths and Maidens and Their Outing at Mt. Maftit.

Last evening shortly after seven o'clock the REPUBLICAN reporter visited the picturesque encampment of two dozen youths and maidens at Mt. Maftit, a delightful summer retreat on the north bank of the classic Sangamon, southeast of the city, less than two miles away. A jollier company of young people it would be difficult to find anywhere on the globe. Mrs. J. H. Bevan and Miss Mary W. French are the chaperones of the outing party, and thus far all is well at "Camp Felicia." The campers are well provided with comforts of life, four large tents, a liberally supplied commissary department, a South African cook, hammocks, swings, boats, fishing tackle, and in fact everything needful for the enjoyment of a stay in the open air beneath the generous shade of wide-spreading oaks. The party is to stay in camp until next week. The disposition is to remain longer, so delightful has been the outing. Visitors from the city are numerous, and with each visit there is a merry time in showing the guests through the tents and in descending upon the delights of camp life. The breakfast hour is 6:30; dinner at 12:30; supper at 7. Don't think that there is any dullness in Camp Felicia. There is no lack of diversions. Various games and music in variety, instrumental and vocal, engage attention. Novel reading is another pastime. The library collection embraces Ben Hur, Looking Backward, The Rogue, Under Two Flags, Dawn, Court Royal, Running the Gunboat, Sergeant's Legacy, Past Forgiveness, Master Passion, Only a Word, Dark Days, Coward Ququette, Sylvia, Called Back and Twenty Years After. The favorite novel is "Hurricane and Petticoats," a novel in two volumes which is never in the library.

Although Billy's works are not in the camp each of the campers has been given a Shakespearean name. It is an easy matter to distinguish Juliet, Portia, Jessica, Ophelia, Nerissa, Cyprian, Lady Bess, Sylvia, Maraudy Champ, Rosalind, Viola, Calphurnia, Lady Macbeth, Brutus, Hamlet, Romeo, Mark Antony, Apollo Belvedere, Horatio, Billy Shakes, Cassius, Orlando, Champ Caesar, and Othello.

Parties who may wish to visit the camp will find easy access by driving east on Central street to the east side of Starr & Mills' addition, thence south to the first gate.

Thrown Out of Court.

The Blue Mound malfeasance case of The People vs. P. L. Vanelev, police magistrate, and R. D. Ward, for aiding and abetting Vanelev, came to a sudden end in Justice Curtis' court last evening, when the motion to quash was allowed. The statutory law making it the duty of a justice of the peace to allow a change of venue on presentation of an affidavit, does not apply to a police magistrate. The law which had been in existence applying to police magistrates, was repealed in 1879, and so Thomas Doran, the complainant, had no case. All of the Blue Mound parties went home last night.

Were Paid Off.

Contractor Pat Hunt, who is building the sewers, has a summary manner in dealing with strikers. Yesterday the men quit work, refusing to work any longer at $1.50 a day, demanding $1.75. When the contractor heard of the state of affairs he paid off all the men who had quit and went ahead with the job by putting new men on the work at $1.50 a day. There was no trouble other than that which raged in the breasts of the men who had quit expecting the advance which they did not receive. The excavation has extended as far north as East North street, two blocks.

A. F. Smith has received official notice from the Western Passenger association that the railroads in the association, the Wabash, the Illinois Central and the Chicago & Alton roads, will sell tickets within a radius of 75 miles of Decatur, at one and one-third fare for the round trip, for the National Prohibition Camp-meeting to be held July 31 to August 11. Mr. Smith will get other roads to make the same agreement. This rate will bring thousands of people to Decatur, many of whom will come on business, with no purpose of attending the meeting. But it is probable that all who come will go out to the camp.

Morgan Back Again.

The veteran conductor of the Wabash line, Horace Morgan, is back again on his old run on the Decatur accommodation, having entirely recovered from the sickness which has kept him in all the past winter and spring. He looks remarkably well now, although thinner than when he was compelled to lay off. His coming back makes several changes in the runs of Wabash conductors. Conductor Jenkins, who has had the accommodation, goes to 41 and 46 on the passenger run between Decatur and Danville. George Webb goes from the canon bell to a freight and Vancoscello takes the local run between Springfield and Decatur. Patrons of the road are glad to see the veteran once more in his old place.—Jacksonville Journal.

A Peculiar Accident.

A peculiar accident is reported from Salt Creek, a farming community near Lincoln. George Davis, while working in the harvest field, had occasion to make some alteration in the needles of his self-winder. The machinery started in some manner and the heavy needle, carrying with it its load of twine, was driven through his hand and back, tying a complete knot of twine in the injured member. It is feared that lockjaw may set in.
